YUBA COMPANY WINS FILINGS IN WATER RIGHTS

The filings on the waters of the Middle and North Yuba rivers made several years ago by the Yuba River Power Company were on Friday approved by the Water Resources Division. The only filing held in abeyance had to do with the proposed dam construction at the Narrows near Smartville, where the stage board of control has made reservations in a scheme of state wide flood control. This it is expected will be adjusted at an early date so that the power company can proceed unhindered to work out its comprehensive plan of power development.

The preliminary plans as outlined provide for a power house at Sierra City, one at Downieville, another at Ramshorn and the final one for low head at the Narrows. One of the company's filings was for 75,000 acre feet of water from the Middle Yuba to be diverted into the North Yuba above Sierra City, the company planning its entire power development on the North Yuba. The total cost of the development is estimated at $44,000,000.

The work of the Yuba River Company in building the Bullards Bar dam and making placer mining possible on a large scale has done wonders for Sierra county mining the past few years and the Narrows dam will solve a similar problem for handling the gravels of the San Juan Ridge. The company is to be congratulated on securing the granting of its applications so that it can proceed to utilize them as speedily as possible.

The company's plans will permit plenty of cheap continuous power for mining purposes throughout Sierra county and provide 24 hour electric service for Downieville, which it has not been enjoying.

ALLEGHANY MINING GOOD SAYS MAYOR HAWKINS

City Manager Ray Hawkins of the bustling little city of Alleghany accompanied by F. A. Austin was in town Saturday afternoon on business He reports mining conditions as looking favorable in and around Alleghany with the influx of new capital into the district.

The famous Sixteen to One is working a crew of eighty men and has steady production.

The Yellow Jacket strike in the No. 2 raise has created some little interest but Alleghany is handicapped by not being over in Nevada where its rich ore would start a veritable stampede from all over the world.

The Gold Dollar property is being worked by leasers who have a good showing.

There are prospects of the Plumbago property being reopened on the Alleghany side if examinations which have been conducted by San Francisco interests prove favorable.

The Oriental mine is working a few men.

The Wonder Company has not been active for some little time, but it is expected that the next few months will see some developments.

W. E. Moulton of French Corral was here Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Ivey and nieces Misses Nadine and Earline Sutton, are home from a auto trip to Mt. Hood and the northwest.

Mrs. W. L. Williamson has had as guests her niece and nephew, Miss Marcia Armstrong and George Herod of Berkeley.

Major W. C. de Bertodano and bride have returned from a honeymoon spent in San Francisco and the southern part of California. He is a mine owner of the Steep Holow section.

R. D. Dorris and Robert Davies of Forest were visitors here last week.

Miss Alice Harry is home from summer school at San Francisco. She is a student at the Teachers college in that city.

Richard Polglase, of the Alpha Store, at Alleghany spent last week end here with his mother.

Tom Maguire is a business visitor in Berkeley.

ERNST REPORTS GREAT WITH TIMBER OWNERS

F. C. Ernst on his return from the San Juan Ridge late Friday announced to The Nugget that he had signed up 3500 acres of timber for his proposed turpentine industry during the week and that things were looking bright for getting under way at an early date if he can secure several more large tracts which have been sought.

The San Juan people showed a wonderful spirit in getting behind the project generally and practically every available tract was signed up by Mr. Ernst in his trip up the Ridge. This speaks volumes for the Ridge people and it will do much for them in the way of financial return in years to come. With cash advances and a written guarantee that absolutely no damage will be done to the trees with a good prospective revenue per acre, there is really not much for any timber owner to hold back on.

SHANGHAI MINE LEASED OUT BY ALEXANDERS

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Alexander have leased the Shanghi mine on Gold Flat to three parties, whose names have not been secured by the Nugget

The property has a 175 foot tunnel and a shaft will be sunk to prospect for ore bodies known to exist on the property which is in a very rich section of the Nevada Basin district. Both gravel and quartz will be sought.

CHAIRMAN TEAGARDEN ISSUES A STATEMENT

Chairman J. A. Teagarden of the board of directors of the Nevada Irrigation District, has authorized The Nugget to make the following statement:

"The board of directors of the Nevada Irrigation District request the landowners not to become unnecessarily alarmed by any statement made by the former manager.

"The board has asked repeatedly of its former manager to outline a policy that will provide a way out of our present financial difficulty. The only policy he had presented has been one of visionary procrastination and lawsuit. This kind of poliy would have ruined the district and have gotten it nowhere.

"The District will not permit a default to the payment of its obligations. It is going to protect its credit and pay its bills. The board of directors propose to adopt a policy of retrenchment to limit any possible expense and try to realize on every available resource that the district has at hand.

"Most all of our creditors are willing to take bonds of the district in payment for what we owe them, provided we get our feet on the ground and transact business in a business-like way. We can and will work a way out."

The Mountain Messenger

C. J. York has several men garding for the quartz mill he is going to build for the owners of the Oro property, in Downieville. The mill will be built below the lower tunnel on the flat at the lower end of Durgan Flat.

Jim Cray and associates from Oakland have located a quartz ledge on the South Fork which was found by Jim Cray and Marcuss Weiss about 30 years ago. They had good prospects at that time, and intend to do some developing shortly.

A raise on an ore shoot is being put up in the Bessler tunnel, after whch the ore will be stoped and crushed in the mill. Some of this ore is rich in free gold, and it is all expected to mill nicely. A quantity of lumber for some necessary buildings has been delivered at the mine.

The old Lincoln claims which were located in 1862 by Harry Fowler, Sr., are being developed with Harry Fowler, Jr., as superintendent. There are ten men working now, and after a gas engine and compressor are installed, which is being done now, more men will be employed.

MANAGER IS SUMMARILY DISMISSED NID DIRECTORS IN DRASTIC ACTION

Chairman Teagarden Says Board Done With Dallying Tactics Wisker Refuses To Get Off The Job Like Good Sport Meeting Tomorrow Will Decide Many Matters Interest Land Owners Committee Unanimous For Action

(By J. A. Teagarden)

The P. E. D. Contract was canceller last June. Since that time Mr. Wisker has maintained a continuous performance, by way of publications in the press, attacking everything and everybody in general. In trying to decipher his motives for these harangues, I can come to but one conclusion. I believe that there is a preconcieved and premeditated plot for some ulterior motive to jam the District into an excessive land tax. Whether this ulterior motive is for revenge or profit I do not know. However the time has come to scrape the barnacles from the ship and for the Board of Directors to take over the helm. Therefore I introduce the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, Mr. A. L. Wisker has been and now is employed as general manager by the Nevada Irrigation District and,

Whereas, said manager on the 6 day of July, 1928, presented his resignation as general manager to the Board of Directors of said District, same to take effect 90 days from said date and said resignation was unanimously accepted and,

Whereas, the better interests of the Nevada Irrigation District can be best served by the immediate termination of the services of said general manager, therefor be it

Resolved, that the services of A. L. Wisker as general manager for Nevada Irrigation District be and the same are hereby treminated and cease from and hereafter the passage of this resolution.

The unamimous concurrence of the special landowners committee elected at the mass meeting held at Rock Creek hall recently and representing every section of the district in the immediate termination of Wisker's services was also given by the committee to the board of directors.

Directors J. A. Teagarden, Theodore Schwartz and Thomas Mulcahey voted in favor of the resolution and Directors Ullrich and Robinson opposed it as was expected.

The long fight conducted by this paper to clean house on the management of the Nevada Irrigation District came to its climax Friday afternoon when Chairman J. A. Teagarden of the board of directors read the statement and resolution given above, following a noontime conference with the special landowners committee and later with the general manager himself. The bombshell came at the opening of the afternoon session and the discharged manager promptly delivered himself of some characteristic language and a blunt refusal to accept the mandate of the majority of the board. Attorney Metteer sidestepped giving a verbal opinion as to whether Wisker could be moved off bodily from the reservation against his will. At this juncture Director Mulcahey moved an adjournment until Tuesday seconded by Director Schwartz and was carried by a 3 to 2 vote.

Following the meeting a large group of landowners got some first hand information from the bond syndicate which floated the first issue of bonds as to how ephemeral a thing the Bear river capstone was in the NID plan and that if the District did not drop condemnation suits the that bondholders would take a hand in the game and there would be more lawsuiting than the landowners would be bargaining for if they didn't get down to practical things, and quit chasing rainbows.

Wisker's refusal to abide by the will of the land owners committee and the majority of the board of directors of the district, showed himself to be an extremely poor sport, in the languarge of one unbiased observer but from now on with the board refusing to have anything further to do with him, puts him on the defensive entirely with the general public and shows him up in his true light. Chariman Teagarden served notice on him that he was done so far as the board is concerned and that it wanted nothing further to do with him.

The meeting was a thriller all day long and the large crowd witnessed another long dissertation by the manager on what he had accomplished at the special conference with the Pacific Gas officials in the city and how hopeful things looked on the Bear river situation. At the conclusion of his peroration Chairman Teagarden produced a letter from one of the company officials in which it positively reiterates its stand that the District must drop its condemnation suits. This was quite a shock producer and during the attorney's description of the conference the manager had time to recover a little of his wind for another onslaught. He produced, in fact demanded, that the matter be passed up to the State Railroad Commission for arbitration at once.

Director Schwartz wanted to go before the Railroad Commission with the consent of the Pacific Gas with regard to the $260,000 water bill of last year. It developed later in the day that Engineer Tibbetts notified the bond syndicate that the district mountain works would not be completed until July 1st, 1928, which of course gives weight to the company argument with regard to the contract.

The attorney gave an opinion on the power filings Nos. 2981 and 2982 with the Water Resources Division and held that they are in good standing. He claimed that the Pacific Gas company in going into the Pitt river country for power development had forfeited any further rights on Bear river which it had not already utilized.

The manager recommended and demanded that resolutions be passed taking the matter of the disputed water bill to the superior court and that the District would not and should not dismiss the water filings on the Bear river.

The payroll and expense account presented by the manager for payment contained among other items, a bill for $25. for sandwiches at the Van Giesen dam celebration, a $500 retainer for the attorney, a bill from the engineer for $2749.60, a bill for $1500 and one of $3318.07 for the District treasurer for special duties one of $707. for hauling for the mountain division and one for $85 telephone tolls.

In regard to request made of the California Debris Commission for storing hydraulicking tailings in the bottom portions of the various reservoirs not useful for water storage, the Commission held that each mine owner make application for mining by hydraulic process before any dams would be inspected for storage possibilities.

The Pacific Gas consented to the relaese of 500 acre feet of water from Bowman dam for the use of the Rescue Eula Mining Company which proposes to reopen the Gaston

Drifting on the new strikes is continuing with encouraging results Good progress is being made in the drift being run on the 400 level to tap the Jackson vein.

COMPANY IS SEEKING QUARTZ CRYSTALS HERE

R. A. Sinclair of the Sinclair-Wolfe Company of Oakland was a Nevada City business visitor the past week. He was scouting the mining fields of the state in quest of quartz crystals which are being eagerly sought for use in radio work and for making lenses. Some detached deposits have ben found around Nevada City at various times but not in large measure. Any one having such deposit should communicate with The Nugget office.

George H. Calanan, who is one of Nevada City's hardest working men, resigned his position as manager of the Narrow Guage last week

RESCUE EULA IS NEARLY READY FOR OPERATIONS

With the securing by the Rescue Eula Company of sufficient water from the Nevada Irrigation District to run necessary machinery with Pelton wheels under an 1172 ft. head will enable active development work to commence by the end of the present month on the extensive Gaston Ridge mining properties now under option to the company. It is planned to have two machine drills operating by that time on the drain tunnel level which is 1900 feet below the outcrop of the vein system.

Water was released by the Nevada Irrigation District Thursday for floating lumber down the Bloomfield ditch from Bowman Dam to enable the reconstruction of the flumes of that system. About 20 men are employed and it is estimated that water will reach North San Juan in two to three weeks.

The work is being done jointly by the San Juan Ridge Water Association and the Rescue-Eula Mining Company operating the Gaston Mine on Gaston Ridge and the Yellow Tiger Consolidated Mining Company operating the Ancho Mine located about 2 miles northerly.

The Rescue-Eula Company is very fortunate to have obtained so favorable a bond and lease on a property which has all indications of developing into a big mine. It is the opinion of the management that the property has only been scratched. On the drain tunnel level, only 900 feet of lateral work has been done on the Gaston vein, a large contact vein between slate and granorionite. In this development two ore shoots have been opened by the former operators and although in the neighborhood of two million dollars have been produced from these ore bodies, a large tonnage of good ore remains for immediate exploitation. The operations were suspended during the latter part of the World War period when labor was scarce, poor, and high priced.

The Rescue-Eula Mining Company is desirous of making a dividend payer out of the Gaston Mine, and is proceeding systematically along the lines of good mining practice to accomplish this end.

The Company is incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada and has been mining for about 24 years, Samuel Shannon, a thorough business man of independent wealth, is president of the company, and under his direction we are confident that a new era is dawning for mining in the district which he has selected to operate in.

We see a splendid opportunity for the stockholders of his company and wish that real mining by stock companies was more the rule than the exception.

The Company is incorporated for 1,500,000 shares of stock of a par value of $1.00. About 1,000,000 share are outstanding.

THE END OF WISKERISM

THE PROSPECTIVE END OF wiskerism in Nevada county is nearly an accomplished fact. The corpse is still squirming around somewhat looking for a legal loophole to prolong its useless existence but it is about to pass out of the picture. More's the pity it wasn't done at least last year when the salvaging operations would have been rendered much easier. There is no need of crying over the frightful wastage of money in useless enterprise that might have been avoided had the directors buckled on their fighting armor earlier in the proceedings but they are to be complimented that they took the decisive step on the brink of what might have been a-catastrophe. The attitude of the bond syndicate in showing a disposition to work out a plan of financial surcease at the present moment is most refreshing to the property owners of the county who had been in fear and trembling for some months past for their future. If the wrecking crew composed of the deposed manager's fanatical adherents will join in the triumphal procession they need no longer keep up the discord that has been so rampant for over a year past.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT IN THE afternoon press of Friday that the Yuba River Power Company had been granted its various filings on the waters of the Middle and North Yubas is indeed some of the best news that has developed for Nevada and Sierra counties in many moons. It was this company which made possible by its construction of Bullards Bar dam, the extensive placer mining on the North Yuba and its tributaries. The intended construction of the Narrows dam will make the same possible on the Middle Yuba which will spell much prosperity for Nevada county and Nevada City in the next few years The state made blanket filings on the Narrows damsite at Smartville last year in behalf of its water conservation plan and that is the only thing lacking to give the Yuba Power interests their complete program involving the expenditure of many milions of dollars. Sierra county has largely been held back in her mining development by the lack of extensive electric power facilities. With an isolated power house near Downieville and the now closed down Plumbago power house, that county was without facilities aside from private plants operated by mining companies. With power houses at Sierra City, Downieville, Ramshorn and the Narrows, Sierra and upper Yuba counties can well look forward to much development in coming years.

WITH MINING GOING FORward by leaps and bounds in this district, with the irrigation district troubles nearly cleared up, with a prospective turpentine industry which will spend many thousands of dollars in this county and with the latest announcement of the Yuba River Power plans nearing consumation, is it any wonder that the people of this county are looking forward to prosperous years.

GEORGE H. WILSON SEEKS EIGHTH ASSEMBLY POST

It is natural, as well as commendable, that electors should desire to have some knowledge respecting the past history and the present standing of candidates for office who are asking their votes. With that thought in mind this paper is publishing a few brief sketches relative to George H. Wilson, candidate for member of Assembly, Eighth district, comprising Yuba, Sutter and Yolo counties. These sketches will consider various phases of Mr. Wilsons's past experiences.

At the time the United States entered into the Great World Conflict Mr. Wilson was living in Imperial county. He responded to the first call as a volunteer and went with his quota to Camp Lewis in September, 1917. He trained with the 316th Engineers until the following January when he was detailed to the Officer's Training Camp in the Artillery Corps. In April following he was transferred to Camp Jackson, South Carolina and later passed a favorable examination for a commission.

Out of the 4000 young men gathered from various training camps over the nation he was one of 400 selected for immediate transfer to France and in the examination given this detail he stood number one in the list. He landed in Bordeaux in May, 1918, and with others was located at the training station at Saumur, a French training Camp.

In this class he had among his "buddies" Theo. Roosevelt, Jr., Chas. Taft, son of Ex-President Taft, a son of former Secretary of State, Cas. E. Hughes and other notable goungsters. From this camp he was assigned, to duty with the 316th Field Artilery, 811st Division, in the capacity of lieutenant, being in charge of a battery with the duties and responsibilities of a Captain. This position he held until the singing of the Armistice.

Upon his return to America and his discharge from the service, he came to the University Farm at Davis, becoming a resident of Yolo county. he has since that time taken a keen interest in the affairs of the service men. He was a leader in the organization of the Davis American Legion Post, which later consolidated with the Woodland Post, and he is now a member of the local Post.

This is but one phase of the life of a man who is asking you to give him the opportunity to serve you in the legislature of California. His military record is a matter of history; his peculiar fitness as your representative lies primarily in his keen knowledge of agriculture and allied interests.

L. Nonnemann was here from the Delhi mine Saturday. He is a San Franciscan and has an interest in the mine.

Mrs. J. H. Coleman and Mrs. T. Pianezzi are here from Alleghany visiting with relatives.

An honorary college degree thus far overlooked is that of Discerner of Political Hokum.

"Steam rollers" sometimes make splendid campaign highways.

The best proof that William Allen White "got under the skin" of Al Smith is illustrated by the silly piffle democratic headquarters is sending out about White's article. White scored Smith for his legislative record favoring the saloons and kindred vices.

Marshal Pilsudski, of Poland, refers to the statesmen in the Polish diet at "wind pumpers". Another evidence that one touch of nature makes the whole world kin.

It is luck that bustles and short skirts didn't become fashionable at the same time—Dallas News.

According to the papers M. Poincare has stabilized the franc. But it's our opinion the American tourists had something to do with it.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By Edson R. Waite

Earl R. Ernsberger, President and general manager of the Southwestern Light & Power Company, says:

That this is an age of understanding between public utility companies and the public.

There is no more comparison between the sound public utility company of today and those of yesterday than there is between the wodern automobile and the horseless carriage of twenty years ago.

Service across the country is a small task for the average motor car of today.

Service across the country is a daily task performed by the present-day utility company.

Twenty years ago service across the country was a feat to tax the capabilities of the two-cylinder speed chariots of the day.

And, the maintenance of uninterrupted electric, gas, ice and transportation service across one city from day to day was an accomplishment of which few utility companies of twenty years ago could boast.

That was in the day before the public and the public utility companies became partners—partners in service.

Public utilities of today are built upon the foundation of courtesy, understanding, reciprocity, confidence—all a literal application of the Golden Rule, if you please.

Has it ever occurred to you that the thousands whose efforts are occupied daily in the extension of public utility service form in themselves a goodly portion of the general publi? They have the same needs, the same service problems and the same service demands. They are entirely of the same clay. Isn't it logical that they themselves would strive to maintain utility service at the highest standards possible, since with the rest of the public they must depend upon this service.

The public as a whole is more than friendly to the modern utility company; the people are behind it; they believe in it because the utility company has demonstrated itself to be worthy of this confindence.

MANY OLD TIMERS ON VISITS FRENCH CORRAL

FRENCH CORRAL. Aug. 7 (Special to The Nugget)— Well, here we are in the middle of summer and as the "water question" is uppermost in our minds we are happy to say the prospect is good for Pine Grove reservoir holding out to the end of summer.

The last issue of The Nugget brot balm to our hearts and we are happy to think the prospect is good for water on the San Juan Ridge.

"Next to a pretty face and form," remarks the Observer, "the most attractive thing a girl can have is a rich father."

ROUGH AND READY JOTS

ROUGH AND READY, Aug. 11, (Special to The Nugget)— The Indian Springs Farm Center met Saturday evening at the school house. President Williams made a report on the meeting held by the Farm Bureau which was held that day. He stated that they would hold a fair this year but would charge an admission fee of 25 cents and also charge a small fee for all exhibits. This will be done to defray the expenses of the fair.

Mr. Graser gave an interesting talk on the different crops and occupations of California showing the ratio value of each.

When Mr. Graser took his seat J. S. Cory asked for a few minutes to discuss some of the statements made at Rock Creek. He stated that one reason why the district was in its present financial condition was because the district management was incompetent. He also stated that Mr. Wisker did not know how to handle money, as he doubless never had any of his own to handle, and that the only thing he had tried to run outside of the irrigation district, was the Loma Rica ranch and that was now in other hands. He said that Mr. Wisker said the farmers didn't give the district their support. Mr. Corey stated that several of the farmers wanted to buy water and although the ditches were there there was no water in them. On Mr. Cory's own ranch he has 4 acres plowed, leveled and planted and can get no water on it. Mr. Cory also stated that at the time of the last land tax Mr. Wisker said that no condition could arise which would make another land tax necessary and now he is doing more hollering about a land tax than anyone else. If Mr. Wisker will keep out, there will be no necessity of a land tax. He also stated that the district would be in much better financial condidtion if they had not bought so many ditches and dam sites as the money was spent where there was no necessity.

A few years ago all the district's reports were kept in the Mill Street office in a tin box. Mr. Corey offered to build a fire proof building and fit it up with counters and safes and rent it to the district at about 6 per cent amounting to about $900. a year. Mr. Wiskers would not listen to it. Mr. Breckenridge interrupted at this point and said there was no space for tools and machinery, to which remark Mr. Corey replied that he had never noticed any tools or scrapers, etc., lying around the office.

He further stated that a meeting at Serra Hall, when asked how much financial backing the PED had Mr. Wisker stated not a cent.

He also stated that we would have a chance to vote for some new directors soon. Roger Williams asked Mr. Cory if he could give the landowners some instructive advice as he had given so much destructive advice Mr. Cory stated that he had given neither, he had merely stated plain facts.

Miss Dorothy Jones returned to her home in Berkeley after a visit here with the Frank Pierce family.

Lawrence Calanan was in from the Ray Ranch Wednesday.

Mrs. C. F. Scheemer and Miss Marjorie White, county health nurse, spent their vacation in San Francisco

Guests too, like automatic hot water service

One never knows when hot water is wanted in their home. And one never knows who wants it.

On the average, there is a demand for hot water 70 times a day in the usual family of four. And this demand starts in the early morning and continues until late at night.

How inconvenient it is to meet that demand with the ordinary water heater!

But a modern Automatic Gas Water Heater keeps hot water always ready for instant use. You merely turn the hot water faucet for a cupful or gallons of steaming water.

Why don't you, too, enjoy the comfort and convenience of a modern Automatic Gas Water Heater? It is the cheapest way to heat water in the home.

WISKER IS KICKED OUT BY BOARD DIRECTORS

Ridge mines on a large scale.

Following the force-out controversy, William H. Girffith advanced a logical proposal to the manager: "Mr. Wisker, you profess the greatest interest for the property owners. Why shouldn't you get out now?"

The attempted attack on the special landowners committee failed of its own weight as it was delegated a permanent committee at the Rock Creek meeting. The committee is composed of J. V. Hubbard and H W. Robinson of Grass Valley, Jos. Francis of Auburn, George Mertz of Lincoln and Thomas Casey of Rough and Ready.

The Nugget pledges its best efforts to the board of directors of the District with the main barnacle cleaned off the ship at last and believes that a solution of the district's ills can now be reached which will put it on its feet after the orgy which has been going on.

BOND S,orefusein olcal

Bond Syndicate Pledges Help

Messrs. Van Bibber and Arthur Battey representing the bond syndicate which marketed the first issue of bonds and George Harrington, member of the legal firm of Orrick Palmer & Dahlquist, stated that they were ready to work out with the District a plan of financial salvation, provided the District was willing to forego its ideas of lawsuiting over the Bear river situation, and further they were ready to work out a plan of procuring more revenue for the District which would insure a safety factor in meeting its future bond and interest payments. They were adamant that the only obstacle to their helping out was the present litigation with the power company.

The air appears greatly clarified with the definite action taken by the board to disperse with Wisker's services forwith. His continued employment has been proving an expensive proposition as well as an embarassing one in meeting the bond holders halfway and assuring the future well being of the district. The matter of a new manager is not likely to be taken up for some little time yet as the pressing problems can be met by the board members in conjunction with the bond syndicate which has shown its willingness to assist in every way possible to get the District on its feet again. The payroll is likely to see some extensive pruning in the near future as the board has expressed itself as wanting to cut down the overhead wherever possible to an economical basis of operation.

EDWARD UREN WRITES FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA

A letter from Edward C. Uren states that he and Mrs. Uren were hung up at Revelstoke for a couple of days owing to missing the boat down the Arrow Lakes to Nelson and Kimberley. They made the trip up to Lake Louise and Banff because they had heard so much about them but the tourist business is a great graft from all sides. Canada is reported to have the greatest wheat crop in 30 years.

British Columbia and Alberta are handling the liquor problem very nicely and American tourists are helping very nicely to pay off the Dominion debt. It was raining in Revelstoke which is a frequent occurrence there. There is still snow some 200 feet deep on the glaciers to the south of town.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

POLITICAL CHAT

Supervisor Dave S. Rowe, who is campaigning for reelection in the second district looks to have easy sailing and ought to breeze in to the post in full trim on the 28th. Dave has given his district excellent representation and as has Dick Eddy in the first. The contenders for honors in the first district are somewhat more formidable than Dave has, but Dick doesn't seem to be losing any sleep over the proposition.

From reports over the district the campaign of Ed C. Gaylord in the assembly race is making strong headway.

Ben Hames' supervisoral campaign in the Sierra City district is coming along nicely and Ben would make a good man on the board.

The senatorial race largely looks to be between Cassidy and Haman on the face of reports from over the district. Mrs. Buck is making a spirited campaign and her attractive placards show artistry. Ivan Parker has been plugging along steadily.

Mrs. Cora Woodbridge is pointing to her record while at Sacramento, but it is unfortunate that she has not shown more action on mining lines as that is what Nevada county wants to know following the fight over the Cloudman bill last year. If we don't get people who are intensely enthusiastic about mining to represent us in legislative halls, we might as well forget our aspirations to be the banner gold mining county of the state.

GAYLORD FOR ASSEMBLY SAYS JAMES STEWART

Editor The Nugget:—

Send Edwin C. Gaylord to the legislature. A vote for Ed means less gab and more work; more midnight oil at the desk and committee rooms and less at social functions; more digging into the problems and needs of the district and less turning of public functions into partisan political meetings.

The curse of government, federal, state, county and municipal is the mixing of government business with social doings with always detriment to the former.

Send a man to the Legislature from this district who can and will roll up his sleeves and get busy and stay busy and the laws that are necessary to open our mines will follow. Send a man to the Legislature from this great mining center that knows hydraulic mining is not some kind of cement,, make or jack.

Send a man who knows our troubles and can tell them intelligently and ask for the proper aid. Too long wev'e been sending representatives from this great mining district that would pour water in an upper; instead send a man who can hit one and favors the thrill of clouting a single jack against the head of a drill.

Lets get our great mining industry out in front by electing a man who is a miner.

It took a lot of talking and hard work on the part of the mining fraternity to get Ed into this fight. Now that he is let us all show our appreciation by not merely electing him but by rolling up such a majority for Ed that the whole state will know that we're in earnest about mining in general and hydraulic mining in particular which should be known to the world as one of our three great outstandng industries.

Ed will not be a novice for he has served a term in the Legislature before and the farmers needs are known to him also for her has planted and brought into bearing one of the finest orchards in the whole country from nursery stock grown by himself. Labor will find he has a sympathetic ear for its troubles and his former record in the legislature speaks for itself in this line.

Ed's mining career is well rounded: he has operated hard rock mines, dredgers, drift gravel, and hydraulic mines.

The world is again showing its interest in gold mining help keep ths interest alive by sending a man to the legislature that can protect these investors and keep the ball rolling.

A vote for Ed Gaylord is a vote for ability, integrity, kindness and untiring energy.

James D. Stewart.
